Console will not Connect

If a console will not auto connect, have the user bring the following information to the Technical Assistance Center (TAC). TAC students will help register the device.

- Type/Model of console
- The wired/wireless MAC address of the device

* Note: Users will need keep their console on and connected to the wired or wireless network.