Resources

Online Resources

The resources in these pages increase access to both primary and secondary material for the study of the Underground Railroad in Lancaster County and the interconnected regions. The links to the left include digital archives, lesson plans, databases, and a variety of multimedia items. Currently there are two resource banks available: lesson plans and databases. You will also find links to a variety of related websites.