Student Email Overview

Overview
The University’s myVILLE Mail offers e-mail services to students. myVILLE email accounts are used by faculty and staff in much of their correspondence with students as well as university administrative offices in their official communications with students.

Requirements
- Available to: Students
- An account authorized for email access
- Must have a current and active status with the University, determined and verified by Registrar.
- Must read and agree to the University Responsible Use of Information Technology Resources policy.

Key Features
- Mail quota — 500MB
- Web-based email service

Getting Started
- Upon admission to the University, every Millersville student receives access to student email, myVILLE Mail, account. myVILLE Mail is how you will communicate with your faculty. That is also the account that is used by university administrative offices in their official communications with students.