Visibility of profile information

Who can see a person's D2L profile?

Any user in Millersville's D2L system can see any other user's profile. Profiles exist at the university level, not the class level, and any information entered into a profile is visible to every other student, faculty, and staff member at Millersville University. There is no way of making profile information visible only to other members of a given class.

---

Profile Privacy Warning

All of your profile information is visible to every other student, faculty, and staff member at Millersville University. For your security and privacy, please only use the picture portion of your profile. Leave all other profile information blank.