Sharing a reading list
How can I share a reading list with other instructors?

These instructions assume you have already logged in to D2L and entered the course in which you wish to work.

1. Navigate within the course to the location of the reading list link.
2. Click the reading list link.
3. If a "Click for Readings" button appears, click that button.
4. In the Search page that opens in a new window or tab:
   a. Click the "See Current Reading List" link near the top of the page.
   b. Near the top of the page, locate the "This is a private reading list" section.
   c. Click "Click here to make this list public" within that section.
5. Return to D2L by closing the Search window or tab.

Ask A Librarian

For additional assistance, Ask A Librarian.