Logging in to OneNote Class Notebook

How do I log in to Microsoft OneNote Class Notebook?

1. Click the "Sign in to OneNote" button.
2. In the "Sign in to your account window" that opens:
   a. If your Millersville[1] email address...
      • ...is listed:
         i. Click your Millersville email address.
         ii. Type your Millersville username (not your email address) and password.
         iii. Click the "Login" button.
      • ...is not listed:
         i. Click "Use another account".
         ii. In the appropriate boxes, type your Millersville email address and password.
         iii. Click the "Sign in" button.

[1] If you are enrolled in a shared program, and your home institution is not Millersville, follow the instructions, but use your home institution email address, username, and password instead of Millersville ones.
